HONORING VETERANS

Veterans Day on November 11th is a federal holiday that honors all men and women who have served in the U.S. armed forces. Originally called Armistice Day, the day marks the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 when an armistice between Germany and the Allies went into effect, ending World War I.

We will honor our Veterans on Wednesday, November 12th, at 2 pm at our

VETERANS' TRIBUTE PROGRAM.

Nick Nickles, U.S. Navy, Lt. Ret., returns as our guest speaker, and we welcome back the fabulous Silver Notes Band.

'AMERICA' IS ONE

How many words can you spell with the letters in "camaraderie"?

Morgen Layne, our Maintenance Assistant, goes way beyond his call of duty -- always willing to help residents and staff. What does he like to do? He enjoys playing Basketball and Dungeon and Dragons on the weekends. Morgen, you truly deserve this honor as Associate of the Month! Congratulations!

Wild World: Great Horned Owl

The great horned owl is the most common owl in North and South America, and also one of the most recognizable, thanks to the feather tufts on its head that resemble horns or pointed ears. Their familiar "who-who" call is most often heard just after sunset or just before dawn. They nest in tree holes and stumps, caves, abandoned nests, and man-made structures such as bridges or barns. With a wingspan of 3 to nearly 5 feet, great horned owls are powerful hunters, eating a large variety of animals, including rabbits, squirrels, ducks and other birds. They have no natural predators and can live up to 15 years in the wild.

Fifty Years of 'Good Morning America'

"Good Morning America" premiered on Nov. 3, 1975. The Emmy-winning news show is taped live in New York City every weekday morning. Past anchors include Charles Gibson, David Hartman, Diane Sawyer and Joan Lunden.

An Ounce of Prevention

Cooler weather signals the start of cold and flu season. We may thoroughly wash our hands only to contaminate them again by touching a germmy doorknob, light switch, keyboard, phone or remote. Taking a few minutes regularly to clean these household surfaces with disinfectant wipes could help stave off a nasty bug.

Remember When: Mood Rings

A groovy fashion trend in the 1970s, mood rings were hip because they changed color. They were said to respond to skin temperature and reflect the wearer's emotions. For example, blue hues indicated a relaxed state, violet signified passion and black meant nervousness. Heat-sensitive liquid crystals in the ring produced the shifts in color. More than 40 million mood rings were sold in just three months, but the fad cooled off by the end of the decade.

A Lasting Impression

French painter Claude Monet is most famous for his series of 250 oil paintings entitled "Water Lilies." But did you know Monet's painting of boats on the water at dawn entitled "Impression, Sunrise" spawned the name for the entire Impressionist movement? We celebrate his birth anniversary Nov. 14, 1840.
